you have a friend request...

Jesus Christ found you using the friend finder. Accept or Ignore? It's nice to think that you are friends with Jesus, but Jesus actually says, "You are my friends if you do what I command." (John 15:14). So what does Jesus command? He says do not steal, lie, murder, or commit adultery (Matt 19:17). He says hatred is murder by saying whoever calls someone a fool is guilty enough to go to hell (Matt 5:22). He says that lusting after someone is the same as adultery (Matt 5:28). Are you obeying Him? If not then He is not your Lord but your enemy. He says, "Not everyone who calls me 'Lord' will enter the kingdom of Heaven. Many will call Me 'Lord' on that day and I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me you who practice lawlessness.'" (Matt 7:23) Will it be like that for you? Have you kept His commands or are you living in sin? Jesus gave us another command, He says, "Repent and believe the Gospel." The Gospel is the good news that our heavenly Father sent His dear Son to be born as the God-man Jesus Christ so He could die in your place on the cross (John 3:16, Romans 5:8) taking the punishment you deserve. God declared His satisfaction by raising him from the dead, and has seated Him at His right hand as Lord and Judge over all. There is no other name given to men by which we must be saved (Acts 4:12, John 14:6). To be forgiven you must repent (confess your sins and turn from them unto God) and put complete trust in Jesus Christ alone (Acts 20:21). Do it today, don't put it off. Confess Jesus as Lord and He will truly be your friend! Visit www.GotOurTract.com for more info.
