

Do you have tough life questions? Why am I here? What does God expect from me? What will happen when I die? The Bible answers these questions. It says that it is appointed once for you to die and then to be judged. If God were to judge you by the His standard of goodness, would you be innocent or guilty? Have you ever lied (9th Commandment)? Have you stolen (8th)? Have you used God's name in vain or as a curse word (3rd)? Will you be found guilty on Judgment Day? God is a righteous judge and He will do right. The punishment for crimes against God is an eternity of torment in hell. Life's toughest question is this: If God is a just judge, how can he forgive your lawbreaking (sin) and still be just? God's love found a way: Jesus Christ suffered and died for you on the cross, satisfying God's justice by taking upon Himself the punishment you deserve. You broke the law and Jesus paid your fine. God proved His acceptance by raising Jesus from the dead. With justice being served, God offers you forgiveness of sins and eternal life. To receive it, God calls you to repent (confess and give up your sins) and trust in Jesus alone for salvation. I urge you to seek Him out today - before your head hits the pillow tonight - now is the acceptable time. Q & A at www.GoodMessengers.org
